i. Audit Report

Daniel Anderson is now present 9:13 AM to present the audit report.

Daniel reported:

Daniel gave the history and background of M&J.

The 2018 Audit Results:

-M&J issued their unmodified opinion, which is the highest level of assurance to the City of Marco Island

-There was 1 Federal and 1 State single audit.

-Management is responsible for financial statements and accounting policies.

-No issues

-No difficulties working with Management

-No Audit adjustments

-One uncorrected misstatement noted; the police pension investment & investment income.

It was a timing difference between statements.

ii. Required Communications to the Audit Advisory Committee/City Council

M&J will be present at the City Council meeting to give the CAFR presentation to City Council.

There are 2 recommendations that will be presented:

1. Disaster preparedness

2. Information Technology

iii. Commentary on City's financial results and benchmarking

M&J supplied to the AAC a spreadsheet that benchmarked several Cities similar in size to Marco Island pulled from the Auditor General's Website.

The Audit Advisory Committee suggested M&J simplify the spreadsheet before presenting it to City Council.
