APPROVAL PROCESS

- The planning board shall hold a public hearing to consider such petitions and shall submit its recommendation in writing to the city council.
- The city council shall hold a public hearing to consider the vacation, and shall publish notice thereof in a newspaper of general circulation in the city in not less than two weekly issues of the paper.
- Following the public hearing, the city council may, by resolution, approve the vacation if it is determined that there is no present necessity, or reasonably foreseeable necessity, for the retention of the street, alleyway, easement or subdivision plat, and that the right to convenient access of adjoining property owners will not be affected thereby.

□ Significant portions of Marco Island are subject to recorded deed restrictions. As the city is not responsible for enforcement of private deed restrictions, it is incumbent upon individuals to know what private restrictions may apply to their property. Please contact Marco Island Civic Association (MICA) for more information at (239) 642-7778 or www.marcocivic.com. By signing this application, the owner/applicant certifies that the owner/applicant has been informed about the existence of such private deed restrictions.

By acceptance of this application, the applicant agrees to defend, hold harmless and indemnify the City of Marco Island and its employees and agents from any and all liability which may arise as a result of this meeting.
