

Section 5.04 - Form of Ballots.

~~Unless otherwise stipulated by general law, The city council by ordinance shall prescribe the form of the ballot by ordinance. An ordinance or charter amendment to be voted on by the city shall be presented for voting by ballot title. The ballot title of a measure may differ from its legal title and shall be a clear, concise statement describing the substance of the measure without argument or prejudice, followed by the word "Yes" and also the word "No" and shall be styled in such manner that "Yes" indicates approval of the measure and "No" indicates rejection of the measure.~~

Section 5.05 - Elections.

~~(1) The candidates receiving the most votes for the office sought shall be elected.~~

Section 5.05 – Elections.

(1) The regular municipal election shall be held on the ~~second~~ first Tuesday in ~~March~~ February of even numbered years. ~~and shall be by mail ballot except in presidential primary years when the election shall be held concurrently with the state primary election, unless the state primary election is changed from March to another month.~~

(2) At all elections the qualifying candidate who receives the highest number of votes cast for that seat shall be deemed elected.

(3) At all elections for council, those persons certified as duly elected shall take office at Noon on the Monday following their election.

(4) Special elections, when required, shall be scheduled by the council at such times and in such manner as shall be consistent with this charter.

~~Section 5.06 – Canvass of Elections.~~

~~For the canvass of votes for any election held pursuant to this charter, except for an election held concurrently with any regular state or countywide election, the canvassing board shall be composed of the chairman or his/her designee if he/she is opposed or incapacitated, the city manager, and the city attorney.~~

Section 5.06 – Canvass of Elections.

For purpose of canvassing absentee ballots and election results, the Marco Island city council shall, for each election, designate a three-member board known as the city canvassing board. The city canvassing board shall be composed of the council chairman, or designee if the chairman's seat is opposed, the city clerk, and a qualified elector appointed by city council.

Section 5.07 – Recall.

The qualified electors of the city shall have the power to recall and to remove any elected official as prescribed by Section 100.361(9) of the Florida Statutes, or as subsequently amended.

Section 5.08 – Adoption of Florida Election Code.

All elections required under any article or section of this charter shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of the Florida Election Code in its entirety and as it is subsequently amended, except as otherwise provided in this charter.

ARTICLE VI – INITIATIVE, AND REFERENDUM, ~~RECALL~~

~~Section 6.01 – Initiative.~~

~~The qualified voters of the city shall have the power to propose ordinances to the council and, if the council fails to adopt an ordinance so proposed without any change in~~

~~substance, to adopt or reject it at a city election, provided that such power shall not extend to the budget or capital program or to any ordinances relating to appropriation of money, levy of taxes, or salaries of city officers or employees.~~

Section 6.01 – Initiative and Referendum.

(1) Ten percent (10%) of the qualified electors of the city shall have the power to petition the council to propose an ordinance or to require reconsideration of an adopted ordinance, and if the council fails to adopt such ordinance so proposed, or to repeal such adopted ordinance, without any change in substance, the council shall place the proposed ordinance, or the repeal of the adopted ordinance, on the ballot at the next general election, or, in council's discretion, at a special election within one hundred twenty (120) days.

(2) A minimum of ten electors may commence initiative or referendum proceedings by filing with the city manager or other designated official, an affidavit stating they will constitute the petitioners' committee and be responsible for circulating the petition and filing it in proper form, stating their names and addresses and specifying the address to which all notices to the committee are to be sent, and setting out in full the proposed initiative ordinance or citing the ordinance sought to be reconsidered.

(3) The city council shall establish procedures by ordinance for the conduct of the initiative and referendum process.

(4) The power to petition the council to propose an ordinance or to require reconsideration or repeal of an adopted ordinance shall not extend to the adopted budget of the city.

Section 6.02 – Referendum.

~~The qualified voters of the city shall, through the initiative process, have the power to propose or require repeal by the council or any adopted ordinance if the council fails to repeal or amend an ordinance so proposed to approve or reject it at a city election, provided that such ordinance shall not extend to the operating budget or any emergency ordinance relating to appropriation of money, but shall extend to an ordinance providing any single capital expenditure in excess of $250,000. If the proposed ordinance to repeal an existing city ordinance has met the signature requirements of section 166.031, Florida Statutes, council shall repeal or amend the ordinance rather than place it on the ballot for a vote by the qualified electors.~~

Section 6.03 – Recall.

~~Recall of elected officials shall be as provided for by general law.~~

Section 6.04 – Commencement of Proceedings.

~~Any five qualified voters may commence initiative and referendum proceedings by filing with the city manager or other official designated by the council an affidavit stating they will constitute the petitioner's committee and be responsible for circulating the petition and filing it in proper form, stating their names and addresses and specifying the address to which all notices to the committee are to be sent, and setting out in full the proposed initiative ordinance or citing the ordinance sought to be reconsidered. Promptly after the affidavit of the petitioner's committee is filed, the city manager or other official designated by the council shall, at the committee's request, issue the appropriate petition blanks to the petitioner's committee at the committee's expense.~~

Section 6.05 – Petition.

~~(1) Number of Signatures. Initiative and referendum petitions must be signed by qualified voters of the city equal in number to at least 10 percent of the total number of qualified voters as of the last regular city election.~~

~~(2) Form and Content. All papers of a petition shall be uniform in size and style and shall be assembled as one instrument for filing. Each signature shall be followed by the printed name and current street address of the person signing and the date on which the petition was signed. Petitions shall contain or have attached thereto throughout their circulation the full text of the ordinance proposed or sought to be reconsidered. Petitions must be accompanied by certification of the Collier County Supervisor of Elections as to the number of petitions signed by qualified voters of the city. There can be only one signature per petition form.~~

~~(3) Time for Filing Referendum Petitions. Referendum petitions must be filed within 45 days after adoption by the council of the ordinance sought to be reconsidered.~~

Section 6.06 – Procedure for Filing.

~~(1) Process for Petitioning. City initiative petition proceedings shall commence only after petitioners have filed appropriate papers with the city manager forming a political action committee as required by the general election laws of the State of Florida. The format and content of the petition to be circulated shall conform to the requirements of general law for amending municipal charters and the general election laws and administrative rules for initiative petitions. Prior to circulation of any petition, it shall be submitted to the city attorney for review of the petition's format for technical sufficiency. The city attorney shall provide written comment of that review within seven~~

~~(7) days. No review as to the legal sufficiency of the proposed amendment's text is to be undertaken by the city attorney. The number of valid voter signatures are as provided in section 166.031, Florida Statutes. Petitions for amendments of the city charter or proposing ordinances for the city shall be received and considered by council only if accompanied by a certificate from the County's Supervisor of Elections as to the number of valid city electors thereon.~~

~~(2) Within twenty (20) business days after certification of the registered voters is received from the Supervisor of Elections, the city manager or other official designated by the council shall complete a certificate as to its sufficiency, or, if it is insufficient, specifying the particulars wherein it is defective, and shall promptly send a copy of the certificate to the petitioner's committee by registered mail. Grounds for insufficiency are only those specified in section 6.05. No petitions shall be circulated which are deficient as to form or compliance with section 6.05 pursuant to the written review by the city attorney in subsection (1) of this section. If the number of signatures is insufficient, the council shall notify the committee filing the petition and allow thirty (30) additional days for filing of additional petition papers, at the end of which time the sufficiency or insufficiency of the petition shall be finally determined.~~

~~Section 6.07 - Referendum Petition; Suspension of Effect of Ordinance.~~

~~When a referendum petition is filed with the city manager or other official designated by the council and deemed sufficient, the ordinance sought to be reconsidered shall be suspended from taking effect. Such suspension shall terminate when:~~

~~(1) The petitioner's committee withdraws the petition;~~

~~(2) The council repeals the ordinance; or~~

~~(3) After a vote of the city electors on the ordinance has been certified.~~

~~Section 6.08 Action on Petitions.~~

~~(1) Action by Council. Once the certification of valid city electors is received, council shall take appropriate action addressing the sufficiency of the petition pursuant to section 166.031, Florida Statutes. If the petition is sufficient, council shall schedule the item for an election or, if appropriate under section 6.02 of this charter, council may repeal or amend an existing ordinance thereby negating the need for an election. The council, in its discretion, may schedule the matter at either the next city election or a special election. If the petition is to repeal an ordinance, council shall determine whether or not to repeal or amend the existing ordinance at the next regularly scheduled council meeting following the determination of petition sufficiency. If council, in its discretion, determines not to amend or repeal the ordinance petitioned for repeal, a special election shall be called not less than ninety (90) days from the date of determination of petition sufficiency. The special election on the repeal of an ordinance shall be by mail ballot unless such election can be scheduled concurrently with a city, county, state, or federal election occurring within that time period.~~

~~(2) Submission to Voters. If council decides a special election is to be held, it shall be conducted by mail ballot not less than ninety (90) days from the date of council's determination of the need for a special election if there is no intervening city, county, state or federal election on which this matter could be placed. Passage of the times provided in subsection (1) without action by the council shall be considered rejection, refusal, or declination. Copies of the proposed ordinance shall be made~~

~~available to the voters either at the polls or by mail ballot, whichever is appropriate. Any petition rejected by the voters may not be submitted again for one year. If repeal of a law is rejected by the voters, the law shall not again be suspended until repeal is supported by the voters or the council repeals it.~~

~~(3) Withdrawal of Petitions. An initiative or referendum petition may be withdrawn at any time prior to the fortieth day preceding the day scheduled for a vote of the city by filing with the city manager or other official designated by the council a request for withdrawal signed by at least four members of the petitioner's committee. Upon the filing of such request, the petition shall have no further force or effect and all proceedings thereon shall be terminated. Any and all costs, including labor, associated with the preparation and acquisition of supplies for the conduct of an election scheduled, but subsequently canceled because of the withdrawal of the petition, shall be reimbursed by the city to the Supervisor of Elections in full.~~

~~Section 6.09 - Results of Election.~~

~~(1) Initiative. If a majority of the qualified electors voting on a proposed initiative ordinance vote in its favor, it shall be considered adopted upon certification of the election results and shall be treated in all respects in the same manner as ordinances of the same kind adopted by the council. If conflicting ordinances are approved at the same election, the one receiving the greatest number of affirmative votes shall prevail to the extent of such conflict.~~

~~(2) Referendum. If a majority of the qualified electors voting on a referred ordinance vote against it, it shall be considered repealed upon certification of the election results.~~

ARTICLE VII – GENERAL PROVISION

Section 7.01 - Charter Amendments.

This charter may be amended in accordance with the provisions for charter amendments as specified in the Municipal Home Rules Powers Act, Chapter 166, Florida Statutes, as the same may be amended from time to time. ~~or its successor, or as may otherwise be provided by general law.~~ The form, content, and certification of any petition to amend shall be established by ordinance.

Section 7.02 - Code of Ethics.

~~(1) Public officers, employees, members of licensing or advisory boards, and candidates shall conform to the "Code of Ethics for Public Officials and Employees," Part III of chapter 112, Florida Statutes.~~

~~(2) Public officers shall file Form 1 with the Collier County Supervisor of Elections annually by July 1. Candidates shall file Form 1 along with their qualification documents. Employees and members of licensing or advisory boards shall file Form 1 annually by July 1 if required by state law. Persons such as attorneys, engineers, certified public accountants, and the like, serving the city under contract, full or part time, shall file Form 1 and Form 3 annually by July 1. In the event that the Florida Code of Ethics is amended or the forms changed, this Code of Ethics would comply with the updated version.~~

Section ~~7.03~~ 7.02 - Transitional Comprehensive Plan and Land Development Regulations.

(1) Until such time as the city adopts a comprehensive plan, the applicable provisions of the comprehensive plan and all existing land development regulations of Collier County, Florida, as the same exists existed on the day the city commences commenced corporate existence, shall remain in effect as the city's transitional comprehensive plan and land development regulations. However All planning functions, duties, and authority shall thereafter be vested in the city council of Marco Island, which shall be deemed the local planning agency until the council establishes a separate local planning agency. until such time as the city council shall delegate all or a portion thereof to another agency.

~~(2) All powers and duties of the Collier County Planning Commission and any Board of Adjustment and Appeals created pursuant to statutes, trade codes, and County Commission of Collier County, Florida, as set forth in these transitional zoning and land use regulations, shall be vested in the city council of Marco Island until such times as the city council delegates all or a portion thereof to another entity.~~

(3 2) Subsequent to the commencement of the city's corporate existence, no amendment of the comprehensive plan or land development regulations enacted by the Collier County Commission shall be deemed as an amendment of the city's transitional comprehensive plan or land development regulations or, shall otherwise take effect within the city's corporate limits unless approved by the city council.

(3) Upon adoption of a comprehensive plan and land development regulations by the city, the provisions contained in Section 7.02 of this charter may be deleted by ordinance.

~~Section 7.04 Legislation Review.~~

~~The council shall review during and within each even decade year the city charter, the city ordinances and the city resolutions then in existence. Following such~~

~~review it shall take such action as may be in the best interests of the city in accordance with the provisions of this charter. Nothing herein shall invalidate any charter provision, ordinance, or resolution then in effect.~~

~~Section 7.05 Penalties.~~

~~Violations of ordinances shall be punishable in accordance with the uniform fines and penalties set by general law.~~

~~Section 7.06 Severability.~~

~~If any article, section, subsection, sentence, clause, or provision of this charter or the application thereof shall be held invalid for any reason, the remainder of the charter and of any ordinances or regulations made thereunder shall remain in full force and effect.~~

ARTICLE VIII — MARCO ISLAND FIRE CONTROL DISTRICT

~~Section 8.01. — Dissolution.~~

~~Upon the effective date of this charter, the Marco Island Fire Control District, an independent special district created by a special act of the Legislature, shall cease to exist; and chapters 65-1413, 78-491, 79-444, 80-595-82-282, 84-415, 89-456, 90-464, Laws of Florida; sections 8.01-8.07 of chapter 90-457, Laws of Florida; and sections 8.01-8.07 of chapter 93-384, Laws of Florida, are repealed. However, the District shall continue to operate and function as normal until council members have been elected and decide to alter responsibilities or functions. From that date forward the city shall have, exercise, and enjoy all rights, immunities, powers, benefits, privileges, and franchises now and formerly possessed or held by said Marco Island Fire Control District.~~

~~Section 8.02 – Transfer of Assets.~~

~~The assets, liabilities, and contracts of the Marco Island Fire Control District, including all rights, obligations, duties, and relationships now existing by law or agreement, including responsibility to provide fire protection service to the area of Marco Island known as Goodland, shall be unaffected and shall remain in full force and effect and shall become those of the City of Marco Island. All rights, claims, actions, orders, and all contracts between the special district and district personnel, and all legal or administrative proceedings involving the district, shall continue in full force and effect under the jurisdiction of the City of Marco Island.~~

~~Section 8.03 – Transfer of Resolutions and Policies.~~

~~To the extent not inconsistent with this charter, all resolutions and policies of the Marco Island fire Control District shall remain in effect until amended, revised, or repealed by the city council.~~

~~Section 8.04 – Transfer of Services.~~

~~Fire protection services to the area formerly served by the Marco Island Fire Control District shall thereafter be a function of the City of Marco Island. Service to the area known as Goodland, outside the boundaries of the city, will be provided in accordance with an intergovernmental agreement with Collier County.~~

~~Section 8.05 – Transfer of Personnel.~~

~~Employees of the Fire Control District shall become employees of the city and all rights as to vacation, sick leave, pay grades, retirement, insurance, and similar personnel benefits shall be preserved until such time as rules, regulations, and personnel procedures have been established by the city.~~

~~Section 8.06 – Establishment of Advisory Board.~~

~~Those elected Fire Commissioners of the Marco Island Fire Control District currently in office shall continue as an advisory board of the city until the expiration of their terms of office.~~

~~Section 8.07 – Further Provisions by Ordinance.~~

~~Such further provisions as are deemed necessary to effect this transition and to provide for the operation of the Marco Island Fire Department shall be provided by ordinance.~~

ARTICLE IX- VIII– STATE-SHARED REVENUES AND LOCAL OPTION GAS TAXES

~~Section 9.04~~ 8.01- City Participation in State-Shared Revenues Programs and Local Option Gas Taxes.

(1) It is recognized that the services provided by independent districts within municipal boundaries provide essential services which would customarily be provided by municipal government. It is therefore declared that the City of Marco Island shall be eligible to participate in revenue-sharing beyond the minimum entitlement in any fiscal year, provided that the city and all independent special districts created under special law, combined, levy ad valorem taxes in amounts as required by section 218.23, F.S.

(2) State-shared Revenues. The City of Marco Island shall be entitled to participate in all shared revenue programs of the State of Florida effective immediately on the date of incorporation. The provisions of subsection 218.23(1), F.S., shall be waived for the purpose of eligibility to receive revenue sharing funds from the date of incorporation through the state fiscal year ~~1997-1998~~ 1999-2000. For purposes of meeting provisions of subsection 218.23(1), F.S., relating to ad valorem taxation, the millage levied by special districts within the corporate limits of the city may be used for an indefinite period of time. Section 218.26(3), F.S., shall be waived for the 1997-1998 1999-2000 state fiscal year and the apportionment factors for the municipalities and counties shall be recalculated pursuant to Section 218.245, F.S. Initial population estimates for calculating eligibility for shared revenues shall be determined by the University of Florida Bureau of Economic and Business Research. Should the Bureau be unable to provide an appropriate population estimate, the Collier County Department of Community Development shall provide an appropriate estimate.

(3) Local Option Gas Taxes. Notwithstanding the requirements of Section 336.025, F.S., to the contrary, the City of Marco Island shall be entitled to receive local option gas tax revenues beginning October 1, 1997. The said revenues shall be distributed in accordance with Section 336.025, F.S.

ARTICLE X IX – TRANSITION SCHEDULE

~~Section 10.01 – Referendum.~~

~~The referendum election called for by this act shall be held within 120 days after approval by the State Legislature and, in any case, no later than September 1, 1997, at which time the following question shall be placed on the mail ballot:~~

~~INCORPORATION OF THE CITY OF MARCO ISLAND~~

~~“Shall HB 1729 as enacted by the 1997 Legislature creating a City of Marco Island and providing for its Charter, be approved?”~~

~~— Yes~~

~~— No~~

~~In the event this questions is answered affirmatively by a majority of the voters voting in the referendum, the provisions of this charter shall take effect in accordance with this transition schedule.~~

Section 9.01 – County Ordinances and Services During Transition Period.

(1) Pursuant to Article VIII of the Florida Constitution, the ordinances, rules, and regulations of Collier County shall continue to be in effect within the boundaries of the City of Marco Island, except that a county ordinance, rule, or regulation in conflict with an ordinance, rule, or regulation of the City of Marco Island shall not be effective to the extent of such conflict. Any existing Collier County ordinances, rules, and regulations, as of August 29, 1997, shall not be altered, changed, rescinded, or added to, nor shall any variance be granted thereto insofar as such action would affect the City of Marco Island, without the approval of the city council.

~~(2) If the city council of Marco Island terminates any MSTD and/or MSTU service, from that date forward the city shall have, exercise, and enjoy all rights, immunities, powers, benefits, privileges, and franchises now and formerly possessed or held by said MSTD and/or MSTU. The assets, liabilities, and contracts of said MSTD and/or MSTU, including all rights, obligations, duties, and relationships now existing by law or agreement, shall be unaffected and shall remain in full force and effect and shall become those of the City of Marco Island. All rights, claims, actions, orders, and all contracts between the terminated MSTD and/or MSTU and key personnel, and all legal or administrative proceedings, shall continue in full force and effect under the jurisdiction of the City of Marco Island. To the extent not inconsistent with this charter,~~

~~all resolutions and policies of the terminated MSTD and/or MSTU shall remain in effect until amended, revised, or repealed by the city council.~~

~~Section 10.02 – Council Election.~~

~~The timing and schedule for the initial election is described in section 3.02. The expense of such election shall be repaid by the city within twelve (12) months.~~

~~Section 9.02 – Effect of Incorporation on Certain Existing Indebtedness.~~

~~Nothing in this act shall affect the obligation of the city, or any property owners therein, for their rightful share of any indebtedness incurred through the Collier County Public Park and Recreation Municipal Service Taxing Unit or the Marco Water and Sewer District in existence and legally due as of the date of incorporation.~~

~~Section 10.03 – Schedule.~~

~~(1) First Council Meeting. The organizational meeting shall be held on the first Tuesday following the election at 9:00 a.m. at the Frank Mackle Community Park, Marco Island. The city council shall organize in accordance with the provisions of Article III of this charter.~~

~~(2) The newly elected council members will promptly appoint an acting city attorney.~~

~~(3) Terms of Office of First Council. Council members elected pursuant to this section shall hold office until their successors are elected in the elections for city offices called, pursuant to section 3.01.~~

Section 9.03 – Deletion of Obsolete Schedule Items.

The council shall have power, by ordinance, to delete from this Article any section, including this one, when all events to which the section to be deleted is or could become applicable have occurred.

~~Section 10.04 – First-Year Expenses.~~

~~The city council, in order to provide moneys for the expenses and support of the city until such times as a budget is adopted and revenues are raised in accordance with provisions of this charter, shall have the power and authority to borrow money by resolution of the city council upon notes or other obligations of the city; but in no event shall such borrowings exceed $750,000.~~

Section 9.04 – Severability.

If any article, section, subsection, sentence, clause, or provision of this charter or the application thereof shall be held invalid for any reason, the remainder of the charter and any ordinances or regulations made thereunder shall remain in full force and effect.

~~Section 10.05 – Transition Ordinances.~~

~~The council shall adopt ordinances and resolutions required to effect the transition. Ordinances adopted within sixty (60) days of the first council meeting under this charter for the purpose of facilitating the transition may be passed as emergency ordinances following the procedures in Article III, except that transition ordinances shall be effective for up to ninety (90) days after enactment. Thereafter, such ordinances may be readopted, renewed, or otherwise contained only in the manner prescribed for normal ordinances in Article III.~~

Section 9.05 – Effective Date.

This charter shall take effect upon the approval of a majority of the registered electors of the city voting in a referendum election.

~~Section 10.06 – County Ordinances and Services During Transition Period.~~

~~(1) Pursuant to Article VIII of the Florida Constitution, the ordinances, rules, and regulations of Collier County shall continue to be in effect within the boundaries of the City of Marco Island, except that a county ordinance, rule, or regulation in conflict with an ordinance, rule, or regulation of the City of Marco Island shall not be effective to the extent of such conflict. Any existing Collier County ordinances, rules, and regulations, as of the date this charter is approved, shall not be altered, changed, rescinded, or added to, nor shall any variance be granted thereto insofar as such action would affect the City of Marco Island, without the approval of the city council. Collier County is authorized to continue to provide all Municipal Service Taxing District (“MSTD”) and/or Municipal Service Taxing Unit (“MSTU”) services budgeted to be provided, as of the date this charter is approved, unless the city council of Marco Island votes to terminate any or all such services.~~

~~(2) If the city council of Marco Island terminates any MSTD and/or MSTU service, from that date forward, the city shall have, exercise, and enjoy all rights, immunities, powers, benefits, privileges, and franchises now and formerly possessed or held by said MSTD and/or MSTU. The assets, liabilities, and contracts of said MSTD and/or MSTU, including all rights, obligations, duties, and relationships now existing by law or agreement, shall be unaffected and shall remain in full force and effect and shall~~

~~become those of the City of Marco Island. All rights, claims, actions, orders, and all contracts between the terminated MSTD and/or MSTU and key personnel, and all legal or administrative proceedings, shall continue in full force and effect under the jurisdiction of the City of Marco Island. To the extent not inconsistent with this charter, all resolutions and policies of the terminated MSTD and/or MSTU shall remain in effect until amended, revised, or repealed by the city council.~~

~~Section 10.07 - Effect of Incorporation on Certain Existing Indebtedness.~~

~~Nothing in this act shall affect the obligation of the city, or any property owners therein, for their rightful share of any indebtedness incurred through the Collier County Public Park and Recreation Municipal Service Taxing Unit or the Marco Water and Sewer District in existence and legally due as of the date of incorporation.~~

~~Section 10.08 - Deletion of Obsolete Schedule Items.~~

~~The council shall have power, by resolution, to delete from this Article any section, including this one, when all events to which the section to be deleted is or could become applicable have occurred.~~

~~Section 10.09~~

~~This act shall take effect upon approval of a majority of the registered electors residing within the proposed corporate limit and voting in a referendum election as provided in section 10.01, except that section 10.01 and this section shall take effect upon becoming a law.~~
