Re: July 2016 Monthly City Council Report

On August 8, 2016, the Marco Island Police Department received bomb/firearm threats via five telephone calls regarding the Marriott Beach Resort. The Marco Island Police and Fire/Rescue Departments, as well as the Collier County Sheriff's Department Emergency Task Force Unit, were dispatched to the Marriott Beach Resort. The threats were, thankfully, unfounded and no explosive devices were located on the premises. Investigation continues into the identity of the caller.

On July 28, 2016, a representative from The Shelter for Abused Women & Children picked up 84 backpacks filled with school supplies donated by Police, Fire and City employees.

Chuck Gunter, a long-time member of the Police Department's Facilities Maintenance team, retired in August. Chuck's counterpart, Jonathan King, stepped up and modified his work schedule in order to complete his and Chuck's duties. Jonathan is to be commended for his extra effort and dedication.
