Sgt. Mark Haueter and Chief Frazzano as they keep kids safe and pass out treats on Halloween

Events

- Beginning in October, motorists can be stopped and cited for using a wireless device in a handheld manner in a school or work zone area in Florida.
- The Republican Club of South Collier County held a welcome celebration for Marco's new City Manager, Mike McNees and new police Chief Tracy Frazzano. Senator and Majority Leader, Kathleen Passidomo, along with 90-plus citizens congratulated them both and wished them well.
- The Marco Island Police Foundation's Annual Dick Shanahan Memorial Tournament was a well-attended fundraising event held at the Island Country Club. Chief Frazzano, MIPD staff, Foundation members, and Marco residents participated in a great event.

- Chief Frazzano, School Resource Sgt. Haueter, and School Resource Officer Ashby participated in Tommie Barfield's walk/bike to school event. Two students won new bikes donated by the Marco Island Police Foundation
- Meet Your City Officials Day was held at Island Country Club where Chief Frazzano and staff joined Fire and Rescue, City Council, City Manager Mike McNees, and others greeting and conversing with local residents.
- Captain Baer and Chief Frazzano attended a CCSO COMSTAT meeting and a liaison meeting with CCSO operations and investigations
- Interviews for Sergeant were conducted.
- Subway, at Island Plaza, hosted Coffee with a Cop. Officers and residents had an opportunity to meet each other and express mutual support.
- Marco Women's Club sponsored a beach clean-up event in honor of City Government Week. Community Service Officers participated, meeting at the South Beach access on South Collier Boulevard.
- Chief Frazzano met with "100 Club" officials.
- Collier County School Board officials met with Chief Frazzano.
- Community Service Officers helped during a beach clean-up conducted by the Marco Island Woman's Club.
- The American Legion had a meeting with the MIPD and MIFRD regarding the Vietnam Wall.
- Chief Frazzano met with the Goodland Civic Association President.
- The Department attended a Job Fair in Naples.
- The Halloween Spooktacular, as always, was a great success for kids and adults. Every year, Officers enjoy watching the kids, handing out treats, and keeping families safe so they can enjoy without worry.
- The American Legion met with Chief Frazzano and they shared a great dialog together.
- Chief Frazzano attended her first Southwest Florida Police Chiefs Association meeting. The organization presents opportunities for networking and education with many law enforcement agencies, including Naples Police, Lee County Sheriff's Office, Cape Coral PD, North Port Police, and Sanibel PD.
- MIPD and MIFRD facilitated training to nearly 40 associates of the Marco Island Hilton. Participants were trained in Active Shooter Concepts, certified in Crowd Management, and CPR/AED first aid.
- The Kiwanis Club had Chief Frazzano speak at their weekly breakfast meeting.
- Chief Frazzano and Captain Baer attended a dinner with the Knights of Columbus.
- Officer Hans Schmid responded to a report of a 3 year old not breathing. He arrived on scene and continued CPR. The child began to breathe on its own.
- In honor of Red Ribbon Week, School Resource Officer Ashby spoke to Tommie Barfield students, reminding them to stay drug-free and that just one person can make a big difference.
- Officers Nelson and Moreno worked with Cub Scouts teaching bicycle, and Trick or Treat safety.
- Chief Frazzano continued staff interviews.
- The Department continues to interview for law enforcement and community service officers.
